

protect your car's cooling system use a formula with the right credentials

Zerex® Dex-Cool is the latest coolant product from Valvoline that contains Organic Acid Technology (OAT) and described by its name is approved for use in GM vehicles.

Apart from GM vehicles, Dex-Cool is also suitable for use in Asian and European cars where specified by the vehicle owners manual.

- Automaker Approved™. Means the coolant chemistry is the same as specified by the OEM.
- Uses Organic Acid Technology chemistry
- Available in Ready To Use and Concentrate.
- Expected longevity for up to 5 years or 240,000 km (whichever comes first).

